

The story so far

2015

- Charles Taylor InsureTech established
- Acquired stake in Fadata delivering access to the insurance policy administration system, INSIS

2016

- Charles Taylor InsureTech launched
- Implemented London Market broking solution, RiskSERVE to market brokers
- Selected to implement insurance policy platform, INSIS, for major LATAM life insurer
- Opened Centre of Excellence in LATAM

2017

- Acquired stake in Otak, an insurance technology platform business specialising in delegated authority solutions, including Tide
- Developed delegated authority solution, Tide
- Selected as partner to deliver delegated authority solution for London Market Group
- Launched world's first cloud-based life, health and protection insurance platform

2018

- Acquired Inworx, LATAM based insurance-focused technology consultancy and software provider with clients such as Willis Towers Watson, Marsh and AJ Gallagher
- Launched 3-year Graduate Programme to develop and expand talent pool
- Presented with the 'London Market Technology Supplier of the Year' award at the London Market People Awards
- Awarded contract to implement INSIS as the core operating platform in five countries for Grupo SURA, a top four life, general and health insurer in LATAM
- DA SATS platform, powered by Tide goes live, with 100% of Lloyd's Managing Agents signed up
- Gained preferred partner status with a number of major insurance organisations

2019

- Developed digital distribution channel solution, Smartix, for UK and European market
- Developed solution to help insurers govern underwriting, claims and non-insurance authorities, Authority Hub
- Partnered with Dutch insurer, DELA, to implement core cloud-based platform as a foundation to a complete digital transformation programme
- Presented with the 'Outstanding Application Development Contribution' award by Oracle

2020

- Charles Taylor acquired by LMP
- Selected by Guy Carpenter as a partner in their future proofing programme to create a global cloud-based document management solution
- Partnered with 6 new clients, including Everest Global Markets, to implement claims management solution, Trax. One of the biggest users renews for 5 more years
- Winners of the Innovative Product Award and Lloyd's and the London Market Award, in conjunction with the London Market Group, at the National Insurance Awards
- Winners of the Oracle Partner of the Year award for UK and Ireland Independent Software Vendors
- Major Global Insurer extends use of Kcenter, document management and workflow solution worldwide
- INSIS platform acquired by a number of major LATAM insurers on multi year contracts